

IT'S TRUE, I'M BLUE

I want my life to mean something. I need to help people and make their lives better. I believe that we are put on this earth to work for some greater good. I love to champion a cause and make a difference in people's lives. I trust my impressions and intuition and am known for my uncanny understanding of how others feel about a situation. Helping others helps me to feel fulfilled.

I love beauty and prefer to surround myself with beauty. I seek harmony in myself, in others, and in my surroundings and I do so enjoy putting just the right touch on my environment to make it a beautiful place.

I think we are all seeking to know just who we are and to gain a sense of direction in this life. I just need the time to search for me so I can become the person that somehow I know I am.

I'm TRUE BLUE!
